One of Our Own Wins Award

On May 10, 2005, the Maryland Association of Community Service for Persons with Developmental Disabilities (MACS) presented Tommy Hill with its 2005 Achievement Award.

Thomas Hill, Jr. received residential support from Progressive Horizons, Inc. for the last two years. Born 51 years ago, Tommy, as he is fondly called, lives with two other men with whom he gets along well.

Tommy came to his home at Progressive Horizons from the Rosewood institution, and the transition was a challenging one at times. Tommy and residential staff faced those challenges head on, and he was quite successful in adapting to a great deal of 'newness' in his life.

He enjoys going out, and takes part in many recreational activities. Tommy attends a community day program five days a week. He has made new friends, and is known for cracking jokes.

Tommy has faced many challenges over the past two years, and has turned them into opportunities for growth and success.
